

Personal health data transfer policy

Concerning the personal health data belonging to patients, located in the European Economic Area, collected and processed by approved Median Technologies' medical device software: No transfer of personal health data to a country outside the European Economic Area